

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF VERANO COUNTY, FLORIDA
CIVIL DIVISION

STANDING ORDER ON CIVIL DIVISION POLICIES & PROCEDURES

The Honorable Eleanor R. Marsh, Circuit Judge

This is synthetic test data — a fictional judge's standing order created for the Supra AI document-intelligence test corpus. The judge, chambers staff, contact information, and venue below are fabricated and do not refer to any real court, judicial officer, or person.

1. Application

These policies govern all civil cases assigned to the Civil Division presided over by Judge Marsh. Counsel and self-represented parties are responsible for reviewing and following them. Questions of practice not addressed here should be directed to chambers.

2. Chambers & Communications

Judicial Assistant: Ms. Priya Donovan. All scheduling and procedural inquiries shall be made by email to marsh.chambers@example.com with all counsel copied. Do not telephone chambers regarding the merits of a pending matter. Ex parte communication is prohibited except as authorized by the Rules of Judicial Administration.

3. Hearing Time

Hearing time of fifteen (15) minutes or less may be set through the online calendar without contacting chambers. Special-set hearings exceeding fifteen minutes require coordination with the Judicial Assistant and a completed coordination form reflecting agreement of all parties as to date, time, and duration.

4. Motions Practice

All motions must comply with Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.100 and state with particularity the grounds and the relief sought. The Court does not hear motions that have not been served at least five (5) business days before the hearing, absent good cause. A proposed order in editable format shall be emailed to chambers no later than two (2) business days before any hearing on a motion.

5. Courtesy Copies

For any matter with more than twenty (20) pages of attachments, a tabbed courtesy copy shall be delivered to the Civil Division mailbox no later than three (3) business days before the hearing. Courtesy copies are not part of the court file and will not be returned.

6. Telephonic & Remote Appearances

Remote appearances are permitted for non-evidentiary hearings on advance request to the Judicial Assistant. Evidentiary hearings and trials are conducted in person unless the Court orders otherwise for good cause shown.

7. Case Management & Trial

The Court will enter a Uniform Order Setting Trial and Pretrial Requirements. Deadlines for disclosure of witnesses and exhibits, completion of discovery, and mediation are governed by that order. Continuances are disfavored and granted only on written motion showing good cause.

8. Professionalism

Counsel are expected to observe the Florida Bar's Standards of Professionalism and to confer in good faith before bringing any discovery dispute. The Court may decline to hear a discovery motion that is not accompanied by a certificate of a good-faith conference.

SO ORDERED in Chambers, Verano County, Florida.

Eleanor R. Marsh, Circuit Judge
